Dear Parents/Carers

We recently received reports that a man in a white transit van had been offering children sweets in the Boyatt Wood shopping area. Our staff are present in the area in the mornings and evenings and have now spoken to the man concerned. Although this was a fairly innocent act, some students still communicated with and took sweets from this man, even though he was a total stranger to them.

Please speak to your children about personal safety and if they are ever worried, the importance of coming straight back to school or reporting the incident to the staff in one of the shops.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely
